ALBERT H. WIGGIN GALLERY

- January 1-January 26 Lithographs by John Copley. Lithographs from the artist's own collection purchased from him in 1946 and given to the Library as part of the Wiggin Collection. Included in this exhibition are some of Copley's portraits and landscapes, scenes of life in Italy, and satirical observations of England and the English.
- January 29-February 29 Prints by Corot, Jacque, Daubigny, and Millet. In addition to showing the more famous etchers, Corot and Millet, this exhibition places emphasis on the works of the two lesser known Barbizon artists, Charles Jacque and Charles Daubigny.
- March 2-April 5 Edward Penfield: Posters for Harper's. Posters in color reflecting the influence of Toulouse-Lautrec, Pierre Bonnard, and other French artists who were active at the turn of the century. Amusing glimpses of American manners, habits, and customs of the period are captured with sparkle and insight.

- April 7-May 26 Toulouse-Lautrec. This exhibition marks the centennial of the artist's birth with more than forty lithographs, including some of the most famous posters. All are from the Library's own collection, one of the finest in the United States.
- May 26-July 22 English Caricature and Comic Art from the Collection of Draper Hill, Jr. A reminder of the wealth of humor and talent often lost to all but the historians delving into the past. Among the many artists who have long been ignored are James Gillray, Charles Keen, and William Heath.
- July 23-September 28 Paris: Prints from the Wiggin Collection. Prints revealing various aspects of a great city as seen by such artists as Charles Meryon, Felix Buhot, Auguste Lépère, Pierre Bonnard, Maurice Utrillo, and others.
- October 5-November 18 Etchings and Drypoints by Alphonse Legros. Selections from the nearly complete collection of Legros prints and drawings which was formed during the early part of this century by the late Francis Bliss of London and California, and which was acquired by Albert H. Wiggin for the Boston Public Library in 1942.
- November 19-December 31 Nason's New England. For more than forty years Nason has been an interpreter of the New England scene. His favorite country is the back country of lonely farms where a hard struggle for existence is mirrored in weatherbeaten farm-houses and sagging barns.

Income to be used for the purchase of books. $205,085.89

Victorine Thomas Artz Fund — Established on November 30, 1896, through inter vivos gift offered by MISS VICTORINE THOMAS ARTZ, on November 7, 1896.

Income to be used for the purchase of valuable rare editions (including original manuscripts) of the writings, either in verse or prose, of American and foreign authors — each of the books to have a distinctive book-plate, that shall declare them to be a part of the (Henry W.) Longfellow Memorial Collection. $10,000.00

Joshua Bates Fund — Established on April 18, 1853, through inter vivos gift offered by JOSHUA BATES on March 10, 1853.

Income to be expended annually in the purchase of such books of permanent value and authority as may be found most needed and most useful. $50,000.00

Benton Book Fund — Established on January 22, 1936, through bequest by will of JOSIAH H. BENTON, who died February 6, 1917.

Income to be applied annually, without regard to amounts appropriated by the City of Boston for maintenance of the Boston Public Library in any year, as follows:

6/10 for the purchase of books, maps and other things in the nature of books and maps (1) which are of permanent value and benefit to the Library and (2) which are desirable for scholarly research and use. 4/10 to be paid over annually to the Rector of Trinity Church to be by him dispersed, either directly, or in his discretion, through charitable organizations or agencies, whether incorporated or unincorporated, in relieving the necessities of the poor. $1,171,026.70

Benton Building Fund — Established on January 22, 1936, through bequest by will of JOSIAH H. BENTON, who died February 6, 1917.

To be held in trust until, with accumulations, total amount thereof is $2,000,000. Then to be applied "to the enlargement of the present central library building in Boston, or to the construction of another central library building in such part of the city as may then be most desirable for the accommodation of the people of said City; such new building to be constructed under the advice of the Librarian of the Library at that time in such manner as may be most desirable for efficient practical working of a library therein". Under Suffolk Probate Court Decree of May 7, 1945, application of $2,000,000 to said object may be deferred until such time as Library Trustees in their discretion determine it to be practicable and desirable or Court otherwise orders. $1,586,897.13

Benton Children's Fund, see Children's Fund.

Charles H. L. N. Bernard Fund — Established on March 28, 1930, through bequest by will of CHARLES H. L. N. BERNARD, who died June 4, 1928.

Income to be used for general purposes, by vote of Trustees. $2,000.00

John P. Bigelow Fund — Established on August 5, 1850, through inter vivos gift offered by MAYOR JOHN P. BIGELOW, on August 5, 1850.

Income to be used for library purposes. $1,000.00

Robert Charles Billings Fund — Established on April 24, 1903, through application of the residuary legacy by will and by codicil of ROBERT CHARLES BILLINGS, who died June 12, 1899.

Income to be used for the purchase of books. $100,000.00

Kate E. Blanchard Fund — Established on September 27, 1940, through bequest of KATE E. BLANCHARD, who died July 7, 1930.

Income to be used for the purchase of scores, books of music and books relating to music, or at the discretion of the Library Trustees, for the general purposes of the Library. $5,066.67

Boston Book Fair 1938 Fund — Established on December 15, 1939, through inter vivos gift offered by the BOARD OF TRADE OF BOSTON BOOK MERCHANTS as representing the excess of receipts over expenditures for the Book Fair held at the Library in November, 1938.

Income to be used for the benefit of the Library Staff. $172.00

J. Ingersoll Bowditch Fund — Established on June 8, 1889, through bequest by will of J. INGERSOLL BOWDITCH, who died February 19, 1889.

Income to be used annually in the purchase of books of permanent value and authority in mathematics and astronomy. All books so purchased to be added to the Bowditch collection. $10,000.00

Caleb Davis Bradlee Fund — Established on November 19, 1897, through bequest by will of REV. DR. CALEB DAVIS BRADLEE, who died May 1, 1897.

Income to be used for library purposes. $1,000.00
